

ABOUT US

The University of Lusaka (UNILUS) is one of Zambia's first private universities established to be a centre of excellence in education, training, research and consultancy. UNILUS offers a diverse range of unique undergraduate and postgraduate programmes with rich and relevant curricula designed to meet the ever changing needs of business and society.

OUR MISSION:

To fulfill the ever-growing demand for employable human capital in various industries through continuous interaction with employers, with a focus on research and regular refreshment of tailor-made programmes; whilst equipping the said human capital with cutting-edge skills, knowledge and information.

OUR VISION:

To be a benchmark university for professional and academic training, coupled with value-adding research in the public and private sectors.

SERVICE DELIVERY:

UNILUS boasts of modern learning facilities and is led by qualified local and international staff, who are dedicated to delivering quality education.

The University offers full-time, part-time (evening classes) and distance learning programmes, with two enrolment intakes each year (i.e. January and June).
