CALL FOR APPLICATIONS OF SENIOR SCHOLARS

The University of Lusaka (UNILUS), a member of the Association of Commonwealth Universities and the Association of African Universities, is cognizant of the large number of Senior Scholars at Doctoral and Professorship level in various fields residing nationally and internationally whose knowledge can be tapped through linkages in various areas to foster national development.

It is with this background that the University of Lusaka is pleased to solicit applications from various Senior Scholars resident nationally and internationally who are interested in being part of a Consortium of Senior Scholars to carry out supervision, lecturing and marking of exam functions.

The Senior Scholars will join the University of Lusaka when they are on sabbatical leave, for short term teaching positions. These openings commence in January 2025.

The areas of specialization include: Finance and Accounting, Project Finance, Project Management, Research Methods, Economics, Banking and Financial Markets, Corporate Finance and Investment, Risk Management, Actuarial Science, Entrepreneurship, Advanced Mathematics, Computer Science, Information Security, Artificial Intelligence, Robotics and Programming, Big Data Management and Application, Public Sector Finance, Human Resource, Data Science, Medicine and Surgery, Pathology, Human Anatomy, Leadership and Management, Real Estate Development and Management.

Interested individuals should send their applications accompanied by a detailed C.V not later than 20/12/2024 to the address below.
